

Please do not weaken one of New Jersey's consumer protection laws, the Do Not Call program. Are we becoming a country where the minority (telemarketer groups) have more power than the people to sway the Federal Government to overturn this program. What happened to majority rules. We in New Jersey have over 2.8 million residents that want to keep the Do Not Call program enforced forever. Thank you for your time, Adele